

The self-consistent perturbed projection method for high order response

Matt Challacombe⁽²⁾, Claude Daul⁽¹⁾, Anders Niklasson⁽²⁾ and Valéry Weber⁽¹⁾

(1) Department of Chemistry, University of Fribourg

(2) Theoretical Division, Los Alamos National Laboratory

Abstract

A $O(N)$ method for calculation of the static response within self-consistent field theory is developed and applied to calculation of the static electric polarizabilities. The method is based on density matrix perturbation theory, obtaining response functions directly via a perturbative approach to spectral projection.